with an undotermined number of 150-mm howitzers and 76.2-mm guns. The unit had cover No 315. Most of its personnel were in a summer camp between Doeberitz and Krampnitz. Bills of the unit were audited by Captain Kulpin (fnu), who also kept the accounts of another unit, apparently an infantry unit, in Altes Lager and of some of the units in Olympisches Dorf which contains the Loewen Kaserne and the Flak Kaserne. The other unit in Altes Lager was also at a summer camp. The administration in altes Lager kept the accounts for the quarters in the former Gardestern restaurant on Hamburger Chaussee, the Riemer bakery in Rohrbeck and the MVD office at 8-9 Wilhelmstrasse, which was referred to as Operational Group Dallgow. An interpreter said that the Loewen Kaserne quartered a tank unit. Several T-34 tanks were observed there The installation was occupied to capacity in beptember. Bills of the unit, which had cover No 350, were audited by Senior Lieutenant Taramov (fnu). The Flak Kaserne also quartered a tank unit which had cover No 315 and whose bills were audited by Senior Lieutenant Berezin (fnu). Armored recommaissance cars were seen in the installation which also housed a repair shop for tanks and motor vehicles with cover No 315. Bills for the repair shop were audited by Lajor Lakarov. (fnu). The Flak Kaserne was only partly occupied in September, and some of the troops were apparently in a summer camp. An artiller, officer course was transferred from Olympisches Porf to the athletic school in

in Wuensdorf by road and rail on and after 16 July. Fills for that course, which had cover No 240, were audited by major Formenko (sie). Dince 19 July, a guard detail of soldiers, who were red-bordered black epaulets and who came from aramphitz, has been located in Olympisches Dorf. The detail had cover No 240. Its bills were audited by Lieutenant Colonel Khlopov (fnu). (3)

- h. Prior to way 1951, the Panzer Kaserne in Gross Glienicke (N 53/2 64) quartered a unit with tanks, four-wheel armored recommaissance cars, AT guns and 120-mm mostars. Only a rear detail of this unit, whose personnel were red-bordered black epaulets, was located in the installation prior to September. Fills of this unit bore cover No 313 and were audited by Captain Suchchev (fnu). In addition, the Panzer Kaserne quartered a unit, apparently a traffic MP unit, of 200 to 250 men, who were black-bordered crimson epaulets and were equipped with infantry weapons. The unit was stationed in Potsdam until the beginning of June. Its commanding officer was Major Bavlynkov (fnu), and its cover No 335. Details of this unit were located in: Niedermouendorf; Schoenwalde; Falkensee; at the intersection of Pestalozzistrasse and Mumboldtstrasse in Falkenhoeh; at 19 Graf Arcostrasse in Mauen, which controlled the Mauen railroad station; at 2 Schulgasse in Daligow under the command of Captain Aleksandrov (fnu); in Seeburg, numbering 15 men; and in the NO restaurant of Gross Glienicke, numbering 20 to 30 men.
- 5. The former German ammunition depot at Bullenwinkel is located 2.5 km southwest of Gross Glienicke on the Gross Glienicke-Krampnitz read. It was under the jurisdiction of the Krampnitz military poet. The depot had cover No 313. Its bills were audited by Captain Sushchev (fnu). No railroad spur was available. Celonel Brasnikov (fnu) was identified as commandant of the Krampnitz military poet. (4)
